

The American Yawp

Chapter 10 – American Democracy

Quiz

1. The Petticoat Affair is a good example of:
 - a. Women's informal political power
 - b. Changing women's fashion
 - c. Women's religious organizing
 - d. Women's role in the economy
2. The "South Carolina Exposition and Protest" outlined the doctrine of:
 - a. Nullification
 - b. Spoils system
 - c. Bank War
 - d. Tariffs
3. "The Bank is trying to kill me, but I will kill it!" was a statement by which political figure?
 - a. Andrew Jackson
 - b. John C. Calhoun
 - c. Nicholas Biddle
 - d. John Quincy Adams
4. The Panic of 1837 referred primarily to a:
 - a. Financial crisis
 - b. Religious revival
 - c. Slave rebellion
 - d. Anti-immigrant riot
5. Harriet Jacobs was an enslaved woman who recounted the violence she experienced in:
 - a. Incidents in the Life of Slave Girl
 - b. Antislavery petitions
 - c. Diary entries
 - d. Southern newspapers
6. This person coined the term "Burned-Over District" to describe the region of New York State where evangelicalism was a powerful religious force:
 - a. Charles Grandison Finney
 - b. Sam Houston
 - c. Lyman Beecher
 - d. John Ridge
7. These two individuals are notable for their opposition to Indigenous removal:
 - a. Jeremiah Evarts and Catharine Beecher
 - b. Abraham Lincoln and John C. Calhoun
 - c. Charles Grandison Finney and Lyman Beecher
 - d. Margaret Eaton and Henry Clay
8. This individual edited The Liberator, an abolitionist newspaper:

- a. William Lloyd Garrison
- b. James Forten
- c. Wendell Phillips
- d. Elijah Lovejoy

9. All of the following are true about Nat Turner's Rebellion EXCEPT:

- a. Turner evaded capture and fled to Haiti
- b. Anti-literacy laws increased in the aftermath
- c. The rebellion drew on the broader community, including enslaved women
- d. The rebellion drew on Christian religious concepts

10. Which of the following happened first?

- a. The Battle of San Jacinto
- b. Mexico offered legal recognition to the Texas Republic
- c. Santa Anna withdrew his army from Texas
- d. The United States annexed Texas